Ivan Wasserman of Amin Talati Upadhye LLP Named Exclusive Winner of the 2017 Client Choice Healthcare & Life Sciences Award for District of Columbia

(Washington DC, February 9, 2017) Ivan Wasserman, partner at Amin Talati Upadhye, has been awarded the 2017 Lexology Client Choice award for exemplary client service in the fields of Healthcare and Life Sciences in the District of Columbia.

According to Lexology’s research, clients praise Mr. Wasserman and “his fantastic team of partners and associates [as] responsive, understanding, knowledgeable and always available.” He was described by one client as “forward thinking, progressive with industry knowledge and fun to work with.” Another stated that “Ivan understands our business and stays up-to-date on all our issues.”

“The increasingly complex legal needs of companies in the health-related and life sciences industries require lawyers who really understand their intellectual property strategies and the intricate regulations governing food, pharmaceuticals, cosmetics and medical devices, “ said Mr. Wasserman. “My partners at Amin Talati Upadhye and I consider it an honor to be focused on these industries, and our goal is to be trusted advisors to businesses as they develop, import and market products aimed at improving the population’s health and wellness. I’m so glad that they seem to think we are meeting that goal.”

Widely considered one of the nation’s premier attorneys for medical, wellness, beauty and other products, Mr. Wasserman advocates for clients subject to the often overlapping jurisdictions of the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), as well as the National Advertising Division (NAD). In addition to this recognition, Mr. Wasserman has been included in Best Lawyers in America from 2007-2017.

“This award confirms all of the reasons we were so thrilled to welcome Ivan as the leader of our new Washington DC office last year,” said firm partner Rakesh Amin. “Ivan has a national reputation for client service, and being in Washington enhances our ability to represent companies in government investigations, enforcement actions, and patent, trademark and class action litigation. As this honor indicates, Ivan’s clients, including foreign and domestic manufacturers, distributors and retailers, have long known the quality of the services he provides, and now we do too.”

Established in 2005, Client Choice recognizes those law firms and partners around the world that stand apart for the excellent client care they provide and the quality of their service. The criteria for this recognition focus on an ability to add real value to clients' business above and beyond the other players in the market. Uniquely, law firms and partners can only be nominated by corporate counsel.
